Dear Judge McMahon:

I am counsel for Defendants in the above-referenced actions, Huneke v. Braun, No. 7:05-CV-10224-CM, Schupp v. Braun, No. 7:05-CV-10225-CM, and Altman v. Braun, No. 7:05-CV-10226-CM (consolidated as the "Derivative Action"). The parties to the Derivative Action have reviewed Your Honor's directions to the parties, endorsed upon my May 25, 2007 letter to the Court regarding the stipulation of the parties to stay the Derivative Action, in which Your Honor indicated that it did not intend to try the Derivative Action, but would instead transfer it back to the Eastern District of New York pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1407 and Lexcon Inc. v. Milberg Weiss Bershad Hynes & Lerach, 523 U.S. 26 (1998).

In light of the fact that the Derivative Action will be tried in the Eastern District, all parties to the Derivative Action understand Your Honor's directions to require that the pretrial order, motions in limine, and other related pretrial papers be submitted to the original transferor judge in the Eastern District, in conformity with that judge's individual practices. We would
